JOTTINGS

Hitler warns America to "buy more or lose trade" - Money doesn't grow on trees, wealth is produced by labor - Great newspapers in this country? Pravda, published in Moscow, issues 8,000,000 copies yearly - Who's who and Who was who - Coffee drinkers consume less coffee since repeal - Is there a limit to lost-master Farley's impudence - - - - - - - - - - - - - 6

Arkansas radicalism votes not to hear Huey Long - Train wreck in Georgia continue - AAA successful in its grain-destroying policy - Mr. Roosevelt declares that NRA has abolished child labor - O, to be President! - Hurrah for a president who never forgets
"the forgotten man" - - - - - - - - - - - - - - - - 26

With Samuel Insull acquitted, why did he run away? - Hitler violates Versailles Treaty - Further Communism compares himself to Jesus, General Johnson compares him to Judas Iscariot - Man Kronlstadt, Czar of Mexico disappeared - Food prices rise, cotton going prices decline-excellent substitute for bread - Millions on relief produce banks at a rate to alarm the Government - 46

Men in the Soviet complain of "oppression" in Lithuania - Hitler wonders Poles anxious to meet mounting cost of living - Difficult to discover why a corsorpt army in Germany is so much more terrible than a conscript army in France, or Italy, or Russia - Are the Scottsboro boys never to be free? - The spectacle of a European war on, and Mussolini's soldiers hopelessly entangled with tribes of Ethiopia, would comfort us in the event of an outbreak of war in Europe - Men learn nothing from experience - - - - - 66

The rhymster triumphs over the poet - NRA, Washington notwithstanding, has passed out of the national picture - Depression evidently not hurting us very much yet - President Roosevelt firm on bonus compromise - Application for membership in Father Coughlin's National Union - Wallace speaks on Jefferson, lauding his ideals - 87

George Sonowski, Polish baron, traded for three German spies held in Poland - Litvinov sang "God Save the King" and Hitler sent congratulations on accasion of King's Jubilee - England not excited about Hitler menace until the announcement of the building of the U-boats - For Sale: Silver, the Versailles Treaty, Father Coughlin's National League for Social Justice - Native tribe in the Punjab, India, agrees to suspend cattle-stealing for a year in honor of King George's Jubilee - the politicians gather when votes are in sight - 108

Professor Einstein did not speak "as he had nothing to say at the moment" - Question of radio advertising is becoming acute - Big city is always the sign of a decaying civilization - Hitler has ambition to go down in history as the new Charlemagne; probable that he will be remembered as the new Attila - Americans always "have a word for it" - rabble-rousing, for example - 126
